A Message from our Minister

If there was a theme for our ministry together, my choice would be Joy! Joy, Joy!

Ministry with UUCC is joyful! Congregational life is full and vibrant. And what an honor it is to be called as the next settled minister with this beloved community. Each week we have programming for both the UUCC community and the greater Augusta community. What we have to offer draws new people to our congregation! We are showing up for each other and Augusta as we open our doors for breakfast on Saturday morning for our unhoused neighbors, as we arrive at the state house to give voice to legislative justice and so much more. Together, we will imagine our way forward!

I hope you'll join one of the conversations about how we might imagine our way forward with families with youth and children. Or perhaps, you'll join in one of the upcoming [not yet scheduled] caucus discussions for those who are 40 years old and under. Together we will continue to live our Unitarian Universalist faith together, designing and redesigning as we go...

Saturday, March 2nd is another opportunity to show up for legislative justice! Join us at 10am for the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival will march and rally in state capitals across the country, bringing the demands of poor and low-wealth people for living wages, healthcare, housing, education, environmental justice, and voting rights directly to our lawmakers. From Texas to Maine and California to the Carolinas, thousands of poor and impacted people, clergy and advocates will call for an end to poverty in the richest nation on earth. Won't you join me?

#TogetherWeMakeADifference!

Love and Light,
Rev. Donna, she, her

Minns Lecture Coming Up!

April 18, 21, & 25 and May 9th

The 2024 Minns Lecture will be offered by the Rev. Jason Lydon and the title is: Abolition Theologies, Praying for Liberation. It will be offered in person and online. Registration required and can be found on this link: <http://www.minnslectures.org/index.php>

“The Minns Lectures are an annual series of lectures on religious topics conducted under the auspices of the Minns Lectures Committee, whose membership is composed of ministers and members of First Church Boston and King's Chapel in Boston. With the first lecture, given in 1942 by Walton E. Cole, this series established itself as an innovative force in Unitarian Universalist thought, and the lectures continue today as a source of creative theological and religious advancement.

The lectureship was established by a bequest of Susan Minns of Boston to honor her brother, Thomas Minns. As she stated in her will, Miss Minns wished for six lectures to be given annually by a Unitarian Universalist minister in good standing on a topic of general religious interest. The title of Walton E. Cole's inaugural series was "Realistic Courage;" former lecturers have included A. Powell Davies, Harry Meserve, Arthur Foote, James Luther Adams, Dana MacLean Greeley, Dorothy Spoerl, Harry Hoehler, Doris Hunter, Rhys Williams, Homer Jack, Victor Carpenter, Carl Scovel, David Keyes, and Richard Henry.” [<http://www.minnslectures.org/about.php>, accessed 2/21/2024]

~Rev. Verdis LaVar Robinson

Thank you to Angie Blevins for maintaining the wayside pulpit and providing us with messages to ponder.

-- Member Connection --

Our dear long term UUCC member, Lorna Doone, moved into Gardiner's Alzheimer's Care Center Feb. 20th. She visited there with her daughter, Lorinda, and liked it a lot - especially their black kitty (who was immediately her friend) & their yummy warm food. Also the woman who used to live in her Arch Beta apartment lives there now and they are friends.

Of course feelings are mixed because she also loves where she lives. And she is welcome to visit Arch Beta for activities & to do other community activities when people can bring her.

An Invitation from the Worship Committee

Are you interested in the process of worship? Would you like to learn how to be more meaningfully present in a worship service? The Worship Committee invites UUCC's Worship Associates and others interested in worship to a workshop led by Rev. Donna on Saturday, February 24, from 10 to 1. If you have ever considered joining the Worship Committee, this workshop would be a good place to begin. If you are simply interested in learning to worship more mindfully, you are welcome as well. For questions, please contact Rev. Donna at minister@augustauu.org.

Karen Allen, Worship Committee Chair

The Stewardship Campaign is about to begin!

In the upcoming weeks you can look forward to:

- testimonials from your fellow congregants
- a packed Stewardship service March 3rd which will include music from the orchestra and the choir
- a Stewardship kick off with pizza and a “Fun with money” game in the Fellowship hall following the March 3rd service.

Leading up to all of this, we have created an information video about the proposed new budget.

Service project from Thursday SGM: Medicine Bottles for Kennebec Valley Humane Society (KVHS)

Empty brown prescription medicine bottles can be used for medications for animals are being collected by Thursday Morning Small Group Ministry. If you can donate, please 1) Wipe out the empty bottles; 2) Remove the labels. (Try peeling from a corner of the label. Some labels will need to be soaked and scrubbed.) 3.) Bring bottles to the collection basket in the Library (Committee Room) on a shelf under the Free Book Section.

We will take what has been collected to KVHS and visit the facility on Wednesday, February 28.
Thank you for your contribution.

Are you interested in offering programming or scheduling an event for the UUCC community?

Please use this program request online form to help guide the process. UUCC is growing and administratively, we are growing with it. Events that used to be scheduled by casually mentioning it to someone no longer work for a congregation that has a membership of 170 people plus approximately another 50 to 75 active friends. Thanks for your help in making growth and programming sustainable.

Rev. Donna Dolham and Lynn Smith, Church Admin.
